

MAINTAINING PROTECTION

During times of despair

(Feel free to change it as per your beliefs and wishes.)

Hello Ganeshji OR ____

I depend on you.

I have all the power of my own only through you.

When things are going well for me, I know they have come from you and through you.

In my trials and tribulations, I rely on you.

In my temptations, I trust in you.

My success is in your hands and so is my life.

I do all that I do, only through you and with your blessings !

Thank you for shielding me, protecting me and saving me, now and forever!

Thank you.
